Introduction:

Being a child of God is no small thing. We have access and privileges that not everyone can rightfully claim. Salvation is not a privilege that all will partake in. The forgiveness of Sins will be lost to most. Not many will be adopted as Sons of God. Today we are far short of being Holy and Blameless on our own. The Grace of God has appeared to all men but all men have not taken hold of it. The Gospel remains veiled to those that are perishing. As God keeps those who belong to Him safe in the Church, He is reconciling to Himself all things in Heaven and on Earth.

Listen to these privileges and do not take them for granted and obey the Lord to gain access to these and more.
